

SOME LATE NIGHT THOUGHTS ABOUT OUR CLASS

Bob Keidel

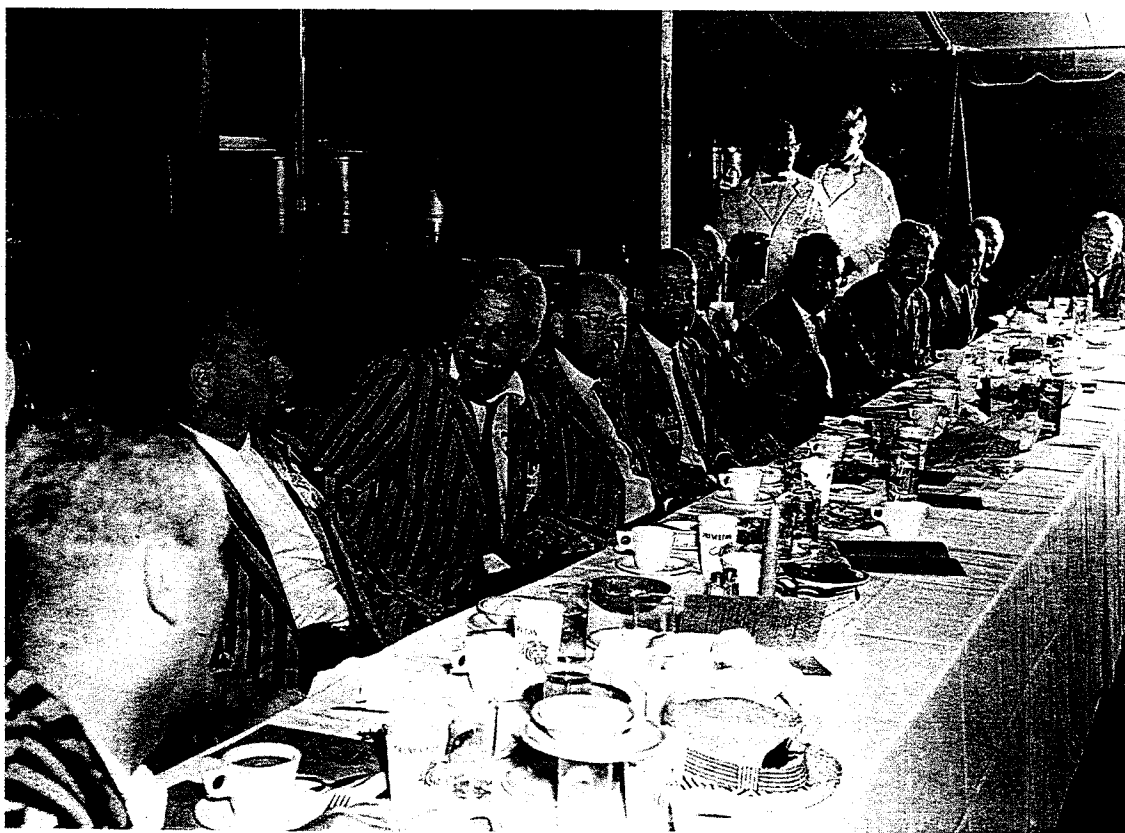

As the years roll by, although our numbers diminish, I feel that the class is coming closer together. It is, of course, the purpose of the Summer Newsletter to help make that happen. With this third issue we now have profiles of some 20 classmates and the beginnings of a class history that, hopefully, will strengthen the ties that bind us. If you have an interesting story to tell of events in your life or that of a classmate, please loosen up and send it to us.

Reunion '91 saw 12 classmates at the Class Dinner and 13 in the P-rade, all of which has been well chronicled in Art Moody's column. Charlie Davis' presence and guiding hand was much missed as he was battling some infections and a heart problem at the Princeton Hospital. I am sure he would like to hear from any and all.

Our scheduled mini-reunion at Skytop October 15 -17 has also been well advertised in the column. The count now is 24, just under the 25 rooms we have reserved, with many regulars still to hear from. If we are to reserve more rooms we must do so soon, so please get your reservation forms in promptly, or write to Frank Townend if you have mislaid them, so he can make the arrangements while there is still time. Those signed up are: Midge and Ed Bartlett, Frannie Carew, Jeanne Chapman, Tom Creigh, Freddie and Bill Croul, Nancy and Ray Carter, Bar and Bill Crow, Mrs. John Dennis, Margie and Burt Etherington, Martha and Bob Ficke, Zola and Eddie Gay, Sophia Godfrey, Marian and Brad Green, Barbara and Bill Hewson, Justine and Bob Keidel, Virginia and Barney Koren and David Kane (nephew), Doris and Herb Marks, Mavis and Curly Marsh, Naomi and Lou Reik, Buz Sloan, Yvonne and Andrew Smith, Norma Smith, Hank Thompson, Lenchen and Frank Townend.

We were saddened by the death of Arch Brooks this year, a former class president and a close friend. We thought the picture below at our class dinner in 1963, our thirtieth, with Arch presiding, a fitting memorial.
