

GREENBRIER TRIP

OCTOBER 11 - 14

Leaving New York on Sunday, October 11 at 9:45 AM from Penn Station, Amtrak's Cardinal Express will make all the usual stops en route to Washington and White Sulphur Springs for our three night stay at the Greenbrier, leaving there Wednesday noon for the trip back. Steve Ailes says he hopes a lot of classmates will come along so he can show them what West Virginia is really like. This is the kind of hype you'd expect from someone inside the Beltway, but certainly this corner of West Virginia is 5-Star in everyone's book. The car will hold about 60 and 44 are already signed up, so don't postpone for too long your decision to join us, at any stop along the way.

At this moment, June 15, the following will be your travelling companions:

Midge & Ed Bartlett	from N.Y.	Dotty & Sam Loveland	Wilmington
Daisy & Jack Bishop	Phila.	Mavis & Curly Marsh	Newark
Cecilia & Swat Brown	Phila.	Ellen Lee & Art Meigs	Washington
Helen & Art Campbell	Newark	Isabel Pears & Jane (sister)	Balto.
Tom Creigh	Phila.	Naomi & Lou Reik	Trenton
Freddie & Bill Croul	Phila.	Yvonne & Andy Smith	Wilmington
Charlie Davis	Trenton	Jeanne & Phil Smith	Phila.
Charlie Fitzmorris	Newark	Peggy & Bill Young	Newark
Ellie & Chas. Harrington	Wilmington	Nellie & Steve Ailes	Washington
William B. Hewson	Trenton	Graham Claytor	Washington
Helen & Les Herzog	N. Y.	Justine & Bob Keidel	Baltimore
Louise & Bob Long	N. Y.

Coming, but not by train: Phyllis & Bill Evans, and Frank Mellinger

Although noted for its fine golf courses, the Greenbrier offers many other enjoyable activities. There are miles of trails to explore on foot or on horseback, scenic carriage rides, trout stocked streams, indoor and outdoor pools, croquet, horseshoes, and lots of tennis. Bowling alleys, pool tables and game room for the indoor sports-minded. Chamber music for tea, cocktails and dancing, and superb food. After all that, you can work out or relax in the luxurious spa and even get a personal evaluation, if you dare. We'll have our own suite to meet and socialize in.

If you have not already done so, send your acceptance card to Steve Ailes, or just write him if you have misplaced it. It's important that we make timely reservations for rooms:

4550 North Park Avenue, #208 after July 2
Chevy Chase, MD 20815

RFD2, Box 140
Lincolnton, ME 04849

In addition to the usual food and refreshments offered by Amtrak on the train trip, there will be some intellectual stimulus for the agile minded, with a few prizes for the well informed.
