

LGBT FALL CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 10:30 PM

Pride Alliance Ice Cream Social

Frist 243

Come to the Pride Alliance's annual kick-off event to welcome new students. Find out more about the Pride Alliance and enjoy delicious ice cream sundaes. Sponsored by the Pride Alliance.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 4:30-7 PM

Part of Frist Campus Center's 4th Annual Open House

Zoe Lewis at Reconnection Café

Zoe Lewis is an energetic, edgy, multi-instrumentalist who has traveled the globe, which shows in many of her tunes. She is a troubadour, a vaudevillian, a storyteller, and an inspired Provincetown performer. Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 4-5:30 PM

Graduate Student Reception

Frist 243

Join the Graduate School and LGBT Student Services for a welcome reception for new and returning students. Co-sponsored with the Office of the Graduate School.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, NOON

Being LGBT at Princeton

Frist 242

Join us for a lunch discussion about the LGBT campus community, the resources we provide, and what it is like to be "out of the closet" at Princeton. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with Pride Alliance and SHARE.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1-3 PM

Welcome Back Bar-B-Que

Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding Courtyard

Welcome our new students and our new year! This will be a great event to attend to meet new people and enjoy our cookout. Sponsored with the Pride Alliance.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 4:30 PM

Dennis Altman—Queer Centers and Peripheries

Betts Auditorium

In 1972, Dennis Altman came to the public's attention with his book Homosexual: Oppression and Liberation, the first serious analysis to emerge from the gay liberation movement. Since then Altman has written 10 books, including Global Sex, The Homosexualization of America, and AIDS in the Mind of America. Altman teaches politics at LaTrobe University in Melbourne, Australia, and he is also president of the AIDS Society of Asia and the Pacific. Co-Sponsored with Fund For Reunion and International Center.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, NOON

This Is What a Lesbian Looks Like

Frist 243

Butch, Femme, Androgynous, Athletic, Lipstick—there are many stereotypes about what a "lesbian" looks like. Join us for a light-hearted discussion about the image and plurality of lesbian, bi, and trans identified women. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with the Women's Center.

OCTOBER

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 4 PM LECTURE

8 PM HIP-HOP SHOW

Tim West—Resisting Homophobia, Resisting Racism

Tim West, scholar, poet, activist, and hip-hop artist, will present a lecture and poetry reading on homophobia and racism and a hip-hop show at night. His rhymes challenge racism, sexism, and homophobia. Sponsored by SHARE.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 8:30-11:00 AM

New Jersey Ride for AIDS

Frist Lawn

This amazing group of cyclists is riding 250 miles to raise funds for AIDS research. We are hosting their morning rest stop on Saturday. Please come out to show your support and cheer them on. Co-sponsored with Pace Center for Community Service and Frist Campus Center.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, NOON

"Queer Pulp: Perverse Passion in the Golden Age of the Paperback"

Frist 243

Susan Stryker will lead a fabulous discussion about her research and book on queer pulp fiction from the 1920s through the 1950s. Queer pulp is a historically significant collection of intriguing books that portray gays and lesbians in American life, most often with characters that are very tragic. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with Fund For Reunion, Pride Alliance, and the Women's Center.

AWARENESS WEEK

OCTOBER 9 - OCTOBER 16

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 7 PM

Susan Stryker—Transcending Boundaries: Activism and Riots in San Francisco's Tenderloin District

Frist 302

Susan Stryker, executive director of the GLBT Historical Society, is co-author of Gay by the Bay: A History of Queer Culture in the San Francisco Bay Area, author of Queer Pulp: Perverse Passion in the Golden Age of the Paperback, and co-editor of the Routledge Transgender Studies Reader. Her work-in-progress is a feature-length documentary film about a Stonewall-like riot in San Francisco's Tenderloin neighborhood in 1966. Co-sponsored with Frist Campus Center, Fund For Reunion, Pride Alliance, the Program in the Study of Women and Gender, and the Women's Center.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 8 PM

E. Lynn Harris Lecture and Book Signing

Frist 302

Acclaimed author E. Lynn Harris, whose works include Invisible Life and five others on the New York Times best-seller list, has become one of America's most popular writers. He will speak about his recent memoir, which tells his life experience as a black gay novelist. Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, NOON

Queering the Color Line

Frist 243

This is a welcoming and supportive space for LGBT people of color to meet other students, staff, and faculty. Stop in, hang out, and have lunch, which is provided. Co-sponsored with Carl A. Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding, International Center, Pride Alliance, and the Women's Center.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 6 PM

LGBT Pride Dinner

Pyne Tower Suite

Join us for Chinese food, dessert, and good conversation! Questions? Contact Lisa at lshero@princeton.edu or 8-6686. Sponsored by the Graduate School.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, NOON

Girl Meets Girl: Adventures in Dating

Frist 243

Join us as we discuss the realities of women dating women and explore topics such as finding meaningful and healthy relationships, avoiding dyke drama, practicing safer sex, and negotiating romance and love. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with Health Promotion Services, SHARE, and the Women's Center.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, NOON

Law and Social Change in the LGBT Community

Frist 243

Kiki Jamieson, professor of politics, will be speaking about LGBT legal rights and the impact of recent court cases. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with Fund For Reunion, SHARE, and the Women's Center.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 7 PM

Transgender Day of Remembrance University Chapel

Please join us as we gather together to remember and honor all those who have died as a result of anti-transgender bigotry, hatred, and violence. This event will be followed by a NJ Town Hall Meeting about transgender topics, which will be organized by GRAANJ. Sponsored with Gender Rights Advocacy Association of New Jersey, Office of Religious Life, Pride Alliance, SHARE, and the Women's Center.

DECEMBER

WORLD AIDS WEEK

DECEMBER 1 - DECEMBER 5

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 4:30 PM

Steven Seidman—Identity and Politics After the Closet

Betts Auditorium

Steven Seidman, sociology professor at SUNY Albany, is the author of, among other books, Beyond the Closet: The Transformation of Gay and Lesbian Life, Embattled Eros: Sexual Politics and Ethics in America, Difference Troubles: Queering Social Theory and Politics, and Contested Knowledge: Social Theory Today. He recently received the American Sociological Association's Simon and Gagnon Award for his lifetime contribution. Co-sponsored with Fund For Reunion.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 4 PM

Tea Party

Frist 243

Join us for this fabulous social event with great conversation and refreshments. Sponsored by the Queer Graduate Caucus and the Women's Center.

MONTHLY EVENTS

FIRST FRIDAYS AT FRIST COFFEE HOUSE

Every First Friday of the Month
3-4:30 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

QUEER GRADUATE COFFEE SOCIAL

Every Third Wednesday of the Month
8-9:30 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by the Graduate School.

SECH DROP-IN HOURS FOR THE LGBT COMMUNITY

Every Third Tuesday of the Month
3-4 pm

McCosh Health Center, Room 11B

Ask for Olga Hernandez. Sponsored by Sexuality Education Counseling Health (SECH).

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, NOON-5 PM

The New Jersey Activist Institute

Friend Center

A once-in-a-lifetime afternoon of interactive workshops, grassroots organizing, and state-of-the-art communications taught by NJ's leading operatives and consultants. The institute will highlight marriage equality and domestic partnership. Sponsored by Lambda Legal and NJ Lesbian and Gay Coalition.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, NOON

Small Murders: Race, Homophobia, and the Murder of Sakia Gunn

Frist 243

Sakia Gunn, a young African-American lesbian, was a recent victim of a brutal murder in Newark. Kim Pearson '78, English professor at the College of New Jersey, will speak about Sakia Gunn's murder and the lack of media coverage, especially in comparison to Mathew Shepard and other hate crimes. Lunch provided.

Co-sponsored with SHARE and the Women's Center.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1-3:30 PM

Boyfriend 101

Carl A. Fields Center Lounge

Jim Sullivan, author of Boyfriend 101, presents a workshop on dating for gay, bi, queer, and same-gendered loving men. Participants will learn strategies for assessing their wants and needs in relationships, meeting emotionally available men, understanding the effects of body image concerns on men who date men, and maintaining healthy relationships. Sullivan has been a relationship counselor and dating coach for the past 25 years. Co-sponsored with the Counseling Center, Health Promotion Services, and SHARE.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT LGBT LIFE AT PRINCETON, CONTACT DEBBIE BAZARSKY, 313 WEST COLLEGE; 258-1353; BAZARSKY@PRINCETON.EDU.

