

LGBT SPRING CALENDAR

FEBRUARY

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 10 PM

Magdalen Hsu-Li

Café Vivian in Frist
Hsu-Li, a pioneering Asian-American musician, will bring her high-energy, consciousness-raising performance, featuring original poetry, vocals, and drum. She is predicated to be the first Bi Chinese-American crossover pop sensation. Co-sponsored with the Asian American Students Association, Frist Campus Center, International Center, Pride Alliance, and the Women's Center.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, NOON

Negotiating a Cultural Taboo: Homosexuality in the Black Community

Frist 243
Join a panel of gay, bisexual, and allied staff and students to talk about the experiences of being LGBT in the black community, breaking through cultural taboos, and negotiating our multiple identities. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with the Black History Month Committee, Black Student Union, Carl A. Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding, Dialogue@Princeton, and the Women's Center.

Union, Carl A. Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding, Frist Campus Center, the International Center, Pace Center for Community Service, Pride Alliance, and the Women's Center.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, NOON

Queer in the Mirror

Frist 243
From Gym Bunnies to Stone Butch, we will examine body image and the physical portrayals of identity within our community. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with the Counseling Center, Health Promotion Services, and the Women's Center.

QUEER AS FOLK

BEGINNING IN MARCH
SUNDAYS 10 PM
CAMPUS CLUB

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, NOON

Intersex 101

Frist 243
An introduction to intersex issues, this workshop will address the experiences of intersexed people and examine the hurtful ways some medical communities try and "cure" children through non-consensual surgeries and hormone treatments. Come learn about the intersex community and why it's important to celebrate every body. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with Health Promotion Services and the Women's Center.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 8 PM

Upbeat

Blackbox Theater
A play about the lives of seven black women and written by SHARE coordinator, Thema Bryant-Davis, Upbeat features female slam poets and follows the journey of women's encounters with spirituality, sexuality, family, betrayal, and the beauty and vulnerability of dreams. Sponsored by SHARE.

MARCH

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, NOON

Athletics and Homophobia: What the NCAA is Doing

Frist 243
Dr. Lauren Costello recently spoke at the NCAA annual conference about homophobia in college athletics. She will join us for a lunch discussion to talk about how the NCAA is addressing homophobia and also speak about homophobia in college athletics. Lunch provided. Co-sponsored with the Athletics department, McCosh Health Center, and the Women's Center.

QUEER GRADUATE CAUCUS - 3RD ANNUAL QUEER POLICY SERIES

March 24 - March 30

THE DEATH PENALTY AND QUEER COMMUNITIES

A look at the prison industrial complex and its impact on the queer community.

IN THE LIFE

A discussion and viewing of the PBS television series and its role in shaping public opinion on LGBT issues.

INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS PANEL

A presentation on recent campaigns to expand LGBT civil rights in other countries and their implications for domestic policy.

LOCAL QUEER POLITICS

A presentation discussing the challenges and successes of working in the queer community in Philadelphia and how politics have shaped the environment for LGBT issues locally.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, NOON

The Social Consequences of Breaking Traditional Gender Roles

Frist 243
Deborah Prentice, from the psychology department, will speak as part of Women's Wounds and Ways of Healing. Lunch provided. Sponsored by SHARE and the Women's Center.

THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 10 PM

Girlyman

Café Vivian in Frist
This genderbent trio creatively mixes music genres to produce a folk/pop sensation that they define as "delicious acoustic harmony-driven gender pop." Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

PRIDE WEEK

APRIL 6 - APRIL 12

APRIL

TUESDAY, APRIL 1, NOON

Lesbian Adolescence: A Short Film and Discussion with Professor Su Friedrich

Frist 243
Su Friedrich, visual arts faculty and filmmaker, will show and discuss her humorous film, HIDE AND SEEK which examines one young lesbian's experience. Co-sponsored with SHARE and the Women's Center.

TUESDAY, APRIL 8, NOON

Eugene Rogers

Frist 243
Eugene Rogers, visiting faculty at the Center of Theological Inquiry and author of Theology and Sexuality: Classic and Contemporary Readings, will speak about homosexuality and religion. Co-sponsored with Department of Religion and Religious Life.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 4:30 PM

Queer Works in Progress

Frist 309
This is the fabulous annual presentation of Princeton students' LGBT academic work, including JP's, theses, and dissertations. Reception to follow. Sponsored by Pride Alliance.

TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 4:30 PM

Paragraph 175

Frist 309
Paragraph 175, the German anti-sodomy law and title of this documentary, is a powerful film that features first-time interviews with the few surviving homosexuals who endured unspeakable horrors under the Nazi regime. A discussion will follow. Co-sponsored with the Center for Jewish Life and the Program in Jewish Studies as part of Yom Hashoah and Holocaust Remembrance Day.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 8 PM

The Fire Hazards Anniversary Show: Five Years of Flame

Frist Theatre
The anniversary concert will feature a collection of musical performances by the 'Hazards, with guest stars, the New Jersey Gay Men's Choir and the Rainbow Chorale. Tickets are $2.

MAY

THURSDAY, MAY 1

DINNER SET AND 11 PM

Antigone Rising

Frist Theatre
Joining in on the Frist Fest festivities, this dynamic all-women's band, Antigone Rising, named one of VH1's bands to watch, is a must see. Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

LAVENDER GRADUATION

SATURDAY, MAY 10, 2-5 PM

This ceremony will recognize the hard work and leadership of those in our community and honor those who are graduating. If you are a graduating student who would like to participate, please contact Debbie at 258-1353. Sponsored with the Fund for Reunion.

SATURDAY, MAY 31, 10:30 AM

Progress and Setback: The Changing Face of Discrimination

Betts Auditorium
FFR/btGALA Reunions Panel for LGBT alumni and friends, will feature a representative from Service Members Legal Defense Fund who will speak about the Don't Ask, Don't Tell, Don't Pursue policy, addressing the changing face of its enforcement and the impact the Bush administration has had on its implementation. Please confirm time and location in the reunion schedule of events.

SATURDAY, MAY 31, AFTER THE P-RADE

FFR/btGALA Annual Meeting

Bendheim Center for Finance (formerly Dial)
Please join us for Fund For Reunion's Annual Meeting immediately following the P-Rade. It is a great chance to meet LGBT alumni and friends.

LGBT RELIGIOUS TOUR

This semester the LGBT Religious Tour is taking place at Princeton with LGBT-specific and affirming services. All services are open to everyone.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 5 PM

The Center for Jewish Life presents LGBT Shabbat Services and dinner

Center for Jewish Life

SUNDAY, MARCH 2, 10 PM

The Episcopal Church at Princeton University presents service with guest preacher Rev. Mary E. Haddad, associate rector, St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church in NYC

University Chapel

THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 6 PM

Unitarian Universalist Campus Ministry presents Soulful Sundown Worship

Center for Jewish Life, lower level auditorium

SUNDAY, APRIL 6, 11 AM

Office of Religious Life presents Pride Sunday in the chapel with guest preacher Rev. Ms. Ruby Nell Sales

University Chapel

Co-sponsored with the Center for Jewish Life, Episcopal Church at Princeton University, Office of Religious Life, Queer Graduate Caucus, and Unitarian Universalist Campus Ministry.

MONTHLY EVENTS

FIRST FRIDAYS AT FRIST

Every First Friday of the Month
3-4:30 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

QUEER GRADUATE COFFEE SOCIAL

Every Third Friday of the Month
7:30-9 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by the Graduate School.

SECH DROP-IN HOURS

Every Third Tuesday of the Month
3-4 pm

McCosh Health Center, Room 11B

Ask for Olga Hernandez. Sponsored by Sexuality Education Counseling Health (SECH).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT ANY OF THESE EVENTS, CONTACT DEBBIE BAZARSKY, 313 WEST COLLEGE; 258-1353; BAZARSKY@PRINCETON.EDU.