

LGBT SPRING CALENDAR

FEBRUARY

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, NOON-1 PM

Survival Poetry

Frist 243

Ayisha Knight, a sexual assault survivor and a poet and photographer, will perform her poetry. Knight, who is bi-sexual, bi-racial, and deaf, will exhibit her healing art at the Women's Center Resource Room. Lunch provided. Cosponsored with SHARE and the Women's Center.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 7 PM

Harry Britt—Why Did They Have to Kill Harvey Milk?

Frist 302

Harry Britt is a longtime queer activist who worked with Harvey Milk, a gay member of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors from 1977-1978. Upon Milk's assassination, Britt was appointed to his seat on the board, where he served for 14 years. Currently, Britt is the Harvey Milk Chair of Activism and Social Justice and Professor of Cultural Studies at the New College of California. Cosponsored with the Department of Anthropology, the Department of Politics, the Fund For Reunion, and the Woodrow Wilson School.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 8 PM

The Debate on Gay Marriage

Frist 302

In honor of National Freedom to Marry Day, we will be hosting a panel discussion examining the national debate on gay marriage and the issues around queering these unions. Cosponsored with the Pride Alliance.

THE L-WORD
AND
QUEER AS FOLK
SUNDAY NIGHTS 10 PM AT QUAD

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 7 PM

Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin

Rocky-Mathey Theater

Bayard Rustin, organizer of the March on Washington, was a master strategist and activist who worked closely with Martin Luther King Jr. Despite his accomplishments, Rustin was silenced, beaten, imprisoned, and fired from key positions just because he was gay. This film portrays Rustin in all his complexity: as an outsider, "troublemaker," and eloquent speaker. Part of the Reel Change, Reel Justice Series. Cosponsored with the Black History Month Committee, the Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding, Dialogue@Princeton, and the Pace Center for Community Service.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 6 PM

LGBT Graduate Dinner

Graduate College CoffeeHouse

Join us for Chinese food, dessert, and good conversation! Questions? Contact Lisa at lsharov@princeton.edu or 8-6686. Sponsored by the Graduate School.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 4:30 PM

Dwight McBride—Straight Black Studies

211 Dickinson

Dwight McBride '90 from the Department of English and chair of the African-American studies department at Northwestern University will be speaking about the field of African-American studies in relation to gay and lesbian issues. Sponsored by the Program in African-American Studies.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, NOON

Bisexual and Heteroflexible: Exploring the Fluidity of Our Identities

Frist 243

What is bisexuality? What defines someone as gay or straight? Come for a discussion about the fluidity of sexuality and panel about identity, attraction, and labels. Lunch provided. Cosponsored with the Women's Center.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26

The Cockettes, with filmmaker David Weissman

Location McCosh 10

As the kickoff to the 14th annual Queer Articulations, we will show the award-winning documentary, The Cockettes, with filmmaker David Weissman.

QUEER ARTICULATIONS

FEBRUARY 26-29

Queer Articulations, Princeton's independent film and video festival, consists of a wide variety of works, including experimental shorts, narrative features, documentaries, and short comedies. Our goal is to bring LGBT independent films to our campus community and represent a myriad of voices through the cinematic experience. Sponsored by the Princeton Pride Alliance.

MARCH

HEROES AND SHEROES WORKING AGAINST HOMOPHOBIA

MARCH 1-12

SHARE is sponsoring a photo exhibit at Frist Campus Center of students, staff, and administrators who are working to combat homophobia and harassment based on sexual orientation.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 7:30 PM

Trembling Before G-d: Film and Discussion with Filmmaker Sandi DuBowski

Frist 302

Join us for this dynamic documentary that shatters assumptions about spirituality, sexuality, religious fundamentalism, and the reconciliation of faith and identity. Followed by a discussion with filmmaker Sandi DuBowski. Cosponsored with Dialogue@Princeton, Bidiner Fund, the Center for Jewish Life, Hillel: The Foundation for Jewish Campus Life, the Office of Religious Life, and Wilson College.

TUESDAY, MARCH 23, NOON

My Girlfriend Did It

Multipurpose Room A

Please join us for this ground-breaking film about same-sex relationships and domestic violence. Lunch provided. Cosponsored with SHARE.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 7 PM

Keeping It Real: A Forum on Race and Sexual Orientation at Princeton

Multipurpose Room B

The LGBT Peer Educators will bring you a fabulous forum on the intersection of race and sexuality, through examining what it is like to be a LGBT student of color at Princeton. Moderated by Fleurette King. Cosponsored with the Fields Center for Equality and Cultural Understanding, Dialogue@Princeton, the International Center, and the LGBT Peer Educators.

PRIDE WEEK

MARCH 27 - APRIL 3

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, NOON

Transgender 101

Frist 243

Do you want to learn more about what it means to be transgendered, or what the "T" in LGBT means? Join us for this educational lunch discussion, and learn more about the trans community. Cosponsored with the Pride Alliance and the Women's Center.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, NOON

Henry Abelove—Why Queer Studies Courses Belong in the University Curriculum

Frist 243

We are fortunate to have renowned LGBT scholar, Henry Abelove, on campus this year as the Stanley Kelley Visiting Professor for Distinguished Teaching. Professor of numerous LGBT courses and author of Deep Gossip and co-editor of The Lesbian and Gay Studies Reader, Abelove will speak about queering the curriculum. Lunch provided. Cosponsored with the Fund For Reunion and the Pride Alliance.

APRIL

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, NOON

Carolyn Dean—Was Hitler Really Gay and Why Does Anyone Care?

Multipurpose Room B

Carolyn Dean is a professor of history at Brown University. Her work focuses on the history of gender and sexuality, and she has authored numerous books, including The Self and Its Pleasures: Bataille, Lacan, and the History of Decentered Subject; The Frail Social Body: Pornography, Homosexuality and Other Fantasies in Interwar France; and the forthcoming Numbness, Empathy, and Indifference After the Holocaust. Cosponsored with the Fund For Reunion, Program in the Study of Women and Gender, and the Women's Center.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 10 PM

Q&A: Queer and Asian in Film

Frist 302

In celebration of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month, we are sponsoring a Q&A film fest, with several shorts and a feature-length film. Cosponsored with the Asian Pacific American Heritage Month Committee and the International Center.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 6 PM

Gay Clergy: The Episcopal Case for Bishop Gene Robinson

Murray-Dodge West Room

Join us for a lively dinner discussion about the controversy over the ordination of LGBT clergy. The discussion will be facilitated by Rev. Thomas Breidenthal, Rev. Stephen White, and Rev. Peggy Hodgins. Dinner provided. Cosponsored with the Office of Religious Life and the Episcopal Church at Princeton University.

SUNDAY, APRIL 18, 11 AM

Pride Sunday with Guest Preacher: Peggy Campolo

University Chapel

The University Chapel is a welcoming community of faith. On Pride Sunday we celebrate the gifts and graces and special contributions of the LGBT community in our midst. Sponsored by the Office of Religious Life.

MONDAY, APRIL 19, 8 PM

Holocaust Remembrance Day

Film: Aimée and Jaguar

Center for Jewish Life, Feinberg Café

Based on a true story, Aimée and Jaguar is the story of a dangerous love affair between two women. Lilly, a married mother of four who is an exemplar of Nazi motherhood, is involved with Felice, a Jewess and member of the underground. Their love fuels her with the hope that she will survive. The film will be followed by discussion. Cosponsored with the Center for Jewish Life and the Program in Judaic Studies.

TUESDAY, APRIL 20, 7:30 PM

Queer Works in Progress

Frist 243

This is the fabulous annual presentation of Princeton student's LGBT academic work, including JP's, theses, and dissertations. Reception to follow. Sponsored by the Pride Alliance.

MAY

SATURDAY, MAY 8, 2-5 PM

Lavender Graduation

This ceremony will recognize the hard work and leadership of those in our community and honor those who are graduating. If you are a graduating student who would like to participate, please contact Debbie Bazarsky at 258-1353. Sponsored with the Fund For Reunion.

MONTHLY EVENTS

FIRST FRIDAYS AT FRIST COFFEE HOUSE

Every First Friday of the Month

3-4:30 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by Frist Campus Center.

QUEER GRADUATE COFFEE SOCIAL

Every Second Tuesday of the Month

8-9:30 pm

Café Vivian in Frist

Sponsored by the Graduate School.

SECH DROP-IN HOURS FOR THE LGBT COMMUNITY

Every Third Tuesday of the Month

3-4 pm

McCosh Health Center, Room 11B

Ask for Olga Hernandez. Sponsored by Sexuality Education Counseling Health (SECH).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT LGBT LIFE AT PRINCETON, CONTACT DEBBIE BAZARSKY, 313 WEST COLLEGE; 258-1353; BAZARSKY@PRINCETON.EDU.